Coverings: Wood, Cork and Leather
Presented by Fred Jackson, CTC, CCI with Estudio Group LLC

This seminar examines the use of coverings such as wood, cork and leather in current design and construction. Worldwide there are 1,600 species! You will learn the origins of wood and the types used in cabinets, furniture and flooring. How to determine which species will perform better in residential, commercial and hospitality installations is discussed.

Sustainable concepts including Green building codes, recycling, re-purposing and reclaimed along with an update of current green building standards is examined.
