Todd Rice/Rice Residential Design

“ I would like to thank The Houston Design Center for this award. This center is a great resource for interior designers of Houston to connect clients to the latest trends from around the world.

The Houston Design Center continues to bring great seminars, CEU luncheons, celebrity events, and some of the greatest trade showrooms in Houston to the forefront.”

Todd Rice Rice Residential Design

Todd Rice is a Residential Home Designer and has been designing upscale beautiful homes in Houston neighborhoods for the past 25 years. He started his business, Rice Residential Design, from a small studio warehouse in the Heights. From that small drafting table to the firm as we know it today, he has continued to create award winning masterpieces throughout the area.

His current staff of 12 continues to produce work under his watchful eye to great designs. Rice Residential Design continues to build award winning homes year after year with a list of clientele second to none. He is notably the most recognized Designer from the Texas Institute of Building Designers.

Todd has been married to his wife Kim for 20 years and they have 2 daughters.
